VIRGINIA C THE WINNER

JACK OF DIAMONDS NEXT

Elevator Took the Yellow Ribbon-Representative Gathering There and Many Handsome Equipages on the Ground.

Under clear skies and with a thor oughly delightful temperature, the Deep Run Hunt Club yesterday afternoon held its first jumping contest,

There was a representative gathering present. Especially notable were the many handsome horses and equipages, being a demonstration of the good done by the Hunt Club, which has created a desire in the community to pay more attention than in former years to the general appearance of their animals and traps.

jumps, which had been erected for the occasion, were just between the shooting stand and the traps. Originally the jumps were built of saplings, which were held in place by a stake well driven in the ground, the topmost pole being with wire.
A CHANGE MADE.

It was deemed advisable by the commit-tee to modify the severity of this style jump, and so it was finally decided to tee to modify the severity of this style jump, and so it was finally decided to remove the stake and tie the top bar with twine. Some horses were withdrawn in view of this action, the owners saying that the jumps ought to be as stiff as in regulation hunting country. However, the contest afforded ample sport as it was.

The first horse over the bars was Virginia, owned by Mrs. Frank W. Christian and ridden by Milton Cronton. The pair made an almost perfect performance, the mare jumping in beautiful form and showing the best of manners. It was generally conceded that nothing short of perfection would beat her after she had made the round twice.

The noxt horse to try was Indian Joe, a rangy chestnut with a blaze face, ridden by Mr. R. W. Johnston, the whipper-in of the Deep Run Hunt Club. Indian Joe can jump when he chooses, and it was no lack of riding that made him touch three out of the four jumps.

Fearless II, a roan gelding, ridden by Milton Cronton, was the third to start. He was ruled out for refusals.

Van Gray, a handsome chestnut gelding, owned by J. D. Matthews and ridden by Miles Selden, started by a refusal and then knocked down one bar, but his other jumps were taken in such style as to, gain him a round of apphuse.

Jim, a toppy looking chestnut gelding, owned by Miss Claudia Palmer, who often hunts him, and ridden by Milton Cronton, started off with two clean performances to his credit, but he was not see fortunate on his third and fourth jumps.

"Little Fellow," the pony belonging to Thomas Atkinson, Jr., and ridden by him.

"Little Fellow," the pony belonging to Thomas Atkinson, Jr., and ridden by him, came sixth. Little Fellow is a wonderfully knowing little horse and showed himself to be perfectly at home over the bars. He rapped, however, two or three times and lost his chance for the blue. Next came Grey Squirrel, owned by and ridden by E. D. Hotchkiss, Jr. After rapping the first jump, Grey Squirrel secored two clean performances and then to his rider's disgust carried away a rail.

JACK OF DIAMONDS.

JACK OF DIAMONDS.

Up to this time no horse had begun to compare to Virginia and it seemed as if her title to the blue would remain undisputed—an illusion which was rudely dispelled my the beautiful performance of Miss Louise Selden w. Jack of Diamonds," with Miss Selden up.
Jack of Diamonds is a black faced chestnut gelding, about 153, well formed and handsome, and the way he sailed over the first three jumps caught the fallery's interest and applause.

At the fourth jump he swerved out, due, it is alleged, to having slipped. Anyow, it was counted a refusal. The spell was broken, and though the Jack of Diamonds took his last jump in great style, he had not he clear title to the blue.

Elevator, a gray gelding, owned and clidden by J. Stewart Bryan, jumped ninth and got three clear scores, but inluckly for his chances he knocked of the top rall on the last jump.

perfect performance, though it was evident that she was a skilful jumper. If E. Guptill's "Don," owner up, jumped eleventh. "Don's" refusals and form showed that he needed more schooling. The last horse to try was Barton H. Grundy's Welbum, Robert Tritton riding. Welbum was a heady and hard to manage horse that took a lot of riding. He began by refusing, and thereafter jumped in a caroless way that lost him all chance for a ribbon.

After consultation the judges, Dr. J. A. White, E. Harvey Savage and H. H. Clarke, made Virginia C. and Jack of Diamonds jump off for the blue, with the result that Virginia C. and, Jack of Diamonds getting the red. Elevator got the yellow, and after another round between Jim and Indian Joe, to see who should have the white, Jim was declared the better. The committee in charge were H. C. Beattle and Carl H. Noltins.

VIRGINIA TO HAVE ANOTHER NOVELIST EERIE OF EAGLES

Miss Lucile Davis, of Norfolk, Soon to Publish Story of Civil War Period.

One of the visitors to Richmond late in last week was Miss Lucile Davis, of Nor-folk, a very handsome young lady, who is soon to publish a novel.

While in the city Miss Davis was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Koiner, wife of Hon. G. W. Koiner, Commissioner of Ag-Hon, G. W. Kolner, Commissioner of Agriculture. Miss Davis was here partly on business in connection with her book, which is soon to be issued. Those who have seen the manuscript speak of it with full measure of praise, and it will be read with unusual interest here, inasmuch as the scenes are laid in and around Richmond. It is a story of the war between the States, full of stirring events and striking pen pictures. The story is said to be charmingly told, the description of the battle of the Crater being especially graphic.

EAST END CLUB'S PRACTICE SHOOT

Some Creditable Scores Made Despite Lack of Practice.

Some of the enthusiasts of the "scattergun'' met yesterday evening on the grounds of the East End Gun Club and tried their hands at smashing "mud-ples." It was a beautiful evening for sport, but the boys could not connect with the target. Probably this was due to not having had any practice over the traps since last fall.

Johnson made a wery creditable score, breaking 23 out of 25.

Mr. John Jackson could not get his 'weather' eye on them, but his low score is not attributed to his gun, for he is the proud possessor of one of the most handsome American guns ever seen in Richmond. Mr. Wlitshire, with his 'brier gun,' made a very creditable' score. Mr. Blair was high gun in all events. There will be practice shooting on the club grounds next Saturday. All shooters are welcome.

WILL ASK PRIVILEGES OF BOTH COUNTRIES

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, March 14.—Germany as soon as the reciprocity troaty between Cuba and the United States is ratified, will ask both the Cuban and United States governments for identical privileges,

While annoyed at the prospect of the United States trade having lower tariffs in Cuba than that of Germany, no on the part of the continental countries would cause either the United States or Cuba to recede. But Germany's position is to be defined clearly, so that the United States may not complain when Germany gives other nations preferential treatment. The principle which the German Foreign Office lays down in entering upon correspondence concerning new commercial treaties is "give and take."

Mr. Turnbull is one of the managers at Dunlop's tobaceo factory, in this city, and Mr. Hinton is the government's representative in the bonded warehouse at that factory. The proposition to walk to Richmond was suggested by one of the clerks, and for the past week the young men have been training at West End Park. They loft Petersburg about 7 o'clock this morning and were allowed six and a half hours to walk to Richmond on a wager. A telegram was received from them this afternoon saying they had made the distance in four hours and fifty-flow minutes. They made the trip by way of the Allantic Coast Line Railroad.

The Trouble with Harrison-Street Baptist Church, colored, has not yet been settled, and there will be no services at the future to morrow. The pastor, Rev.
